Practical Guideline for Speakers

We are looking forward to this extraordinary event!

Things to know before you go

Registration

As a keynote or invited speaker, you should be registered to attend the conference with a waived fee code. If you have not done so until 1 September, your registration has been done automatically. Please contact event@graphene-flagship.eu if you cannot attend the event.

Graphene Week Online Programme

Please check your presentation's title, abstract and time slot in the digital programme.

If your title and abstract do not appear or need to be updated, send the information to gw@graphene-flagship.eu. If you do not update this information, it will not be correct in the Graphene Week Programme!

Presentation Format

- Keynote lecture with 45 minutes, 10 minutes of Q&A to follow.
- Invited talk with 30 minutes, 5 minutes of Q&A to follow.
- Please introduce yourself to the Session Chair no later than 15 minutes before your presentation
- Please use 16:9 format for your slides. Logos here. Find template here.
- Make sure that all graphics, fonts and videos (including audio) are saved within the PPT presentation.
- Save your presentation file as: Presentation date (xx.xx.xxxx) RoomName (see online programme) FirstLastName. Avoid queuing.
- Upload your presentation here or bring your presentation on a USB-stick to the Media Desk.
- Note: speakers presenting on stage at the Auditorium need to exit the Auditorium at the east Exit, go left and follow the yellow signs.

Media Desk & Technical Equipment

- The Media Desk is located on the ground floor of the venue assisting presenters between 8:00 and 18:00.
- Visit the Media Desk at least one hour before your talk to ensure your presentation was uploaded and check compatibility with LCD projectors.
- LCD projector, screen, PC, podium microphone or lapel microphone and laser pointer will be provided in the meeting room.
